

Daisy's day out

Written by Hollie Darby
Illustrated by Mark Holland

Daisy dog wanted to walk to school, but her mummy told her she first needed to learn about road safety.

So Daisy decided to ask her friends if they could help her...

"Hello Kitty Cat" said Daisy "Do you know about road safety?"

"Yes!" said Kitty "First of all you must always STOP when you get to a road before you cross it."

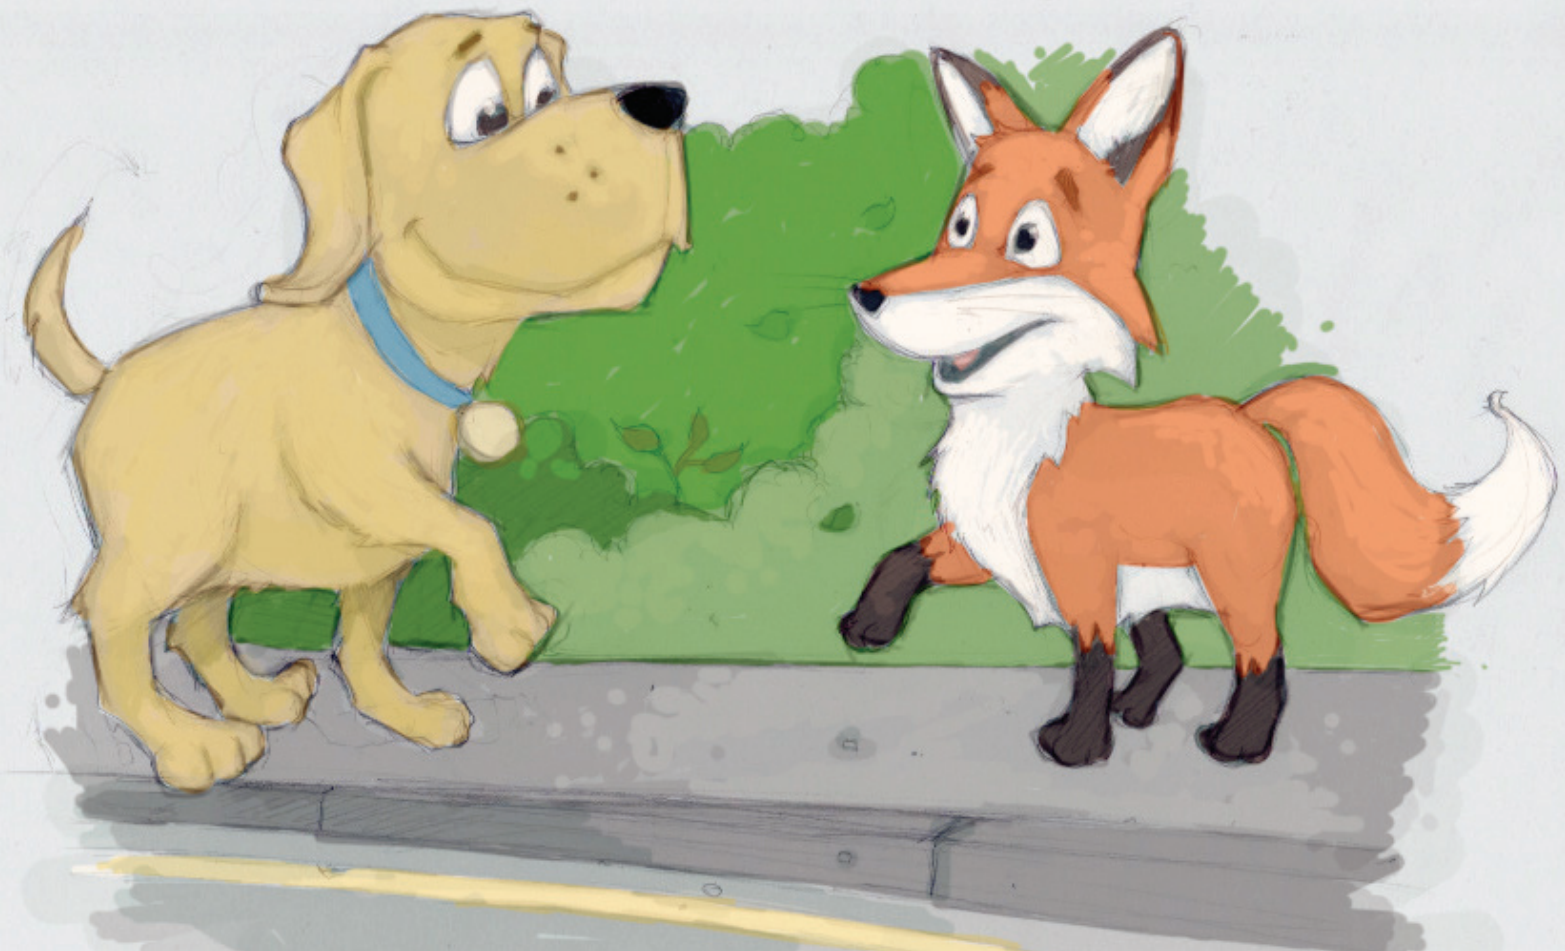

"Thank you" said Daisy "I will always remember to STOP!"

Daisy then saw her friend Freddie Fox.

"Hi Freddy, what do you know about road safety?"

Freddie Fox said "You must always LOOK both ways before you cross the road."

"Thank you" said Daisy "I will always remember to LOOK!"

Rachel Rabbit was nibbling on a carrot.
"Hi Daisy, how can I help?" said Rachel.

"What do you know about road safety Rachel?" Daisy asked.

"Well you must always LISTEN before crossing the road."

"Thank you Rachel" said Daisy
"I will always remember to LISTEN!"

Last but not least, Daisy went to see Wise Old Ollie Owl.

"Hello Ollie Owl" said Daisy "What do you know about road safety?"

"Well Daisy, when I fly above the roads so high in the sky,
I see all the animals and children crossing the road."

"They STOP, LOOK, LISTEN and most importantly they THINK about where they cross the road and whether it is a safe place to cross."

"They never cross between parked cars."

"Thank you Ollie, I will always remember to THINK before crossing the road" said Daisy.

Daisy was thankful for all her friends who taught her about road safety.

She told her mummy that she now knew what she and all of the other animals and children had to do when crossing the road.

STOP, LOOK, LISTEN, THINK