Request to Northamptonshire Fire and Rescue Service:

1. How many buildings within the area that you cover were identified following Grenfell as having potentially dangerous cladding?
2. How many of those still have the potentially dangerous cladding identified?
3. Can you provide a list of the buildings still affected?
4. Is anything in place to monitor these buildings?

Response:

1. Following the Grenfell incident, Northamptonshire Fire and Rescue Service immediately undertook a full review of all high-rise residential buildings within Northamptonshire. The result from the review confirmed no premises being identified as having potentially dangerous cladding.
2. n/a
3. n/a
4. Within Northamptonshire the high-rise residential buildings are inspected as part of our Risk Based Inspection Programme. See link below. The re-inspection schedule is currently every three years. We have close working relationships with operators/owners and have worked with them proactively when they have reviewed fire safety and/or undertaken any improvement works.

APPEAL RIGHTS

If you are unhappy with how your request has been handled or you do not think the decision is correct, you have the right to ask for a review of the decision.

Prior to lodging a formal appeal you are welcome and encouraged to discuss the decision with the case officer that dealt with your request.

Ask to have the decision looked at again

The quickest and easiest way to have the decision looked at again is to telephone the case officer. That person will be able to discuss the decision, explain any issues and assist with any problems.

Appeal

If you are dissatisfied with the handling procedures or the decision that the Service have made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act) regarding access to information, you can lodge an appeal with the Northamptonshire Police to have the decision reviewed.

Appeals should be made in writing within 20 days of receipt of your reply and either emailed to freedomofinformation@northants.police.uk or addressed to:

Freedom of Information Manager
Information Unit
Northamptonshire Police Headquarters
Wootton Hall
Northampton
NN4 0JQ

Where possible the Service will aim to respond to your appeal within 20 working days. However, meeting this time scale will depend upon the circumstances and complexity of the issue.

The Information Commissioner

After lodging an appeal with the Service, if you are still dissatisfied with the decision, you may make an application to the Information Commissioner for a decision on whether the request for information has been dealt with in accordance with the requirements of the Act.

For information on how to make an application to the Information Commissioner please visit their website at www.ico.org.uk Alternatively, telephone or write to:
